Heritage Bank Announces New Commercial Lender Who Will Also Serve as Bank's First Diversity & Inclusion Officer
Burlington, KY. – Heritage Bank (www.heritagebank-ky.com) has added Robert LaMothe as a new commercial lender and has named him as the bank's first Diversity and Inclusion Officer.

Mr. LaMothe, a graduate of both Ball State University and Xavier University, has 17 years experience in commercial lending and has spent the last four years serving as Portfolio Manager for the Minority Business Accelerator of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber.

“We are extremely excited to welcome Robert to the Heritage Bank team,” said H. Lytle Thomas, President & CEO of Heritage Bank. “Robert’s experience in financial services and contacts in Greater Cincinnati will create new opportunities to introduce individuals and businesses to community banking.”

A veteran of the U.S. Army, Mr. LaMothe resides in Fort Thomas, KY and is involved with HCDC, the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati, and the Southwest Ohio Region Workforce Investment Board.

About Heritage Bank

Heritage Bank was chartered in 1990 by a group of local businessmen who, in the face of expanding interstate banks and national bank holding companies, wanted to preserve the concept of local banking. They believed then, as they do now, that there is great benefit in personal banking—knowing customers on a first-name basis and understanding the financial needs of individuals, families and their businesses. Heritage Bank has 17 offices in Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Pendleton, and Grant counties to serve you. Member FDIC. Equal Housing Lender.
